

JOSH MANDEL

STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

by MARC KOVAC | CAPITAL BUREAU CHIEF
News Leader

Columbus -- Local governments would have to disclose their total debt obligations and per-capita implications when asking voters' permission to borrow more money, under legislation being introduced in the Ohio House this week.

Rep. Kristina Roegner, a Republican from Hudson, said the proposed law changes would provide voters with a clearer picture of public debt so they could make better-informed decisions at the polls.

READ FULL STORY