STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

TOLEDO &ndash; State Treasurer of Ohio Josh Mandel announced today that registration has opened for the Toledo area Smart Money Choices conference, which will be held at the Owens Community College Toledo Campus in Perrysburg on August 12, 2011. Smart Money Choices is a free personal financial-planning conference series for all Ohioans presented by the Treasurer's office. There are six Smart Money Choices conferences that have been scheduled for 2011 in regions across the state. Click here for more information, or to register for the Toledo Smart Money Choices Conference.

"The Toledo Smart Money Choices conference will offer free resources to Northwest Ohioans who are trying to build a more solid personal financial plan. It is a great opportunity to take advantage of free access to qualified financial professionals and experts who can provide advice and tools to plan for the future," said Treasurer Mandel. "The Smart Money Choices conference will cover a broad range of topics and issues across the spectrum, from paying for college to saving for retirement and everything in between. The goal of this series is to provide Ohioans with tools to better manage their finances, and to continue a focus on sound financial planning."

Courses that will be offered during the day are: Budgeting, Credit & Debt Management, Consumer Fraud, Estate Planning, Insurance, Investments, Kids & Money, Programs to Help Ohioans, Retirement Planning and Social Security.

The conferences include an opening session, panel discussion, breakout sessions taught by financial planning experts, and a closing session. Participants are encouraged to interact with presenters and ask questions. These all day conferences are presented from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
