Momentum Grows for Statewide Government Transparency with Over 490 Local Government and School Districts Partnering with OhioCheckbook.com

Press Release - Ohio Treasurer's Office

FAIRPORT HARBOR – Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel announced today the launch of the Fairport Harbor Village Schools and Perry Public Library online checkbooks on OhioCheckbook.com. In December 2014, Treasurer Mandel launched OhioCheckbook.com, which sets a new national standard for government transparency and for the first time in Ohio history puts all state spending information on the internet. OhioCheckbook.com recently earned Ohio the number one ranking in the country for government transparency.

The Ohio Treasurer's office was joined at today's announcement by Fairport Harbor Village Schools Superintendent Dr. Domenic Paolo, Treasurer Lewis Galante, Finance Department Officer Judy Church, School Board President Mary Javins and Teacher Hendrik Wolfert. Fairport Harbor Village School District is the fourth school district in Lake County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com and Perry Public Library is the first library in Lake County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com.

The following is a breakdown of today's local government sites:

Fairport Harbor Village Schools' online checkbook includes over 2,000 individual transactions that represent more than $3 million of total spending over the past Fiscal Year.

Perry Public Library's online checkbook includes over 5,000 individual transactions that represent more than $2 million of total spending over the past three years.

"I believe the people of Lake County have a right to know how their tax money is being spent, and I applaud local leaders here for partnering with my office to post the finances on OhioCheckbook.com," said Treasurer Mandel. "By posting local government spending online, we are empowering taxpayers across Ohio to hold public officials accountable."

"We are pleased to be part of Treasurer Mandel's OhioCheckbook.com initiative," said Fairport Harbor Village School Treasurer Lewis Galante. "This innovative tool complements the financial transparency already provided by the school district in a user-friendly and convenient way for our taxpayers."

"Perry Public Library is pleased to provide this information through the Treasurer of State's OhioCheckbook.com program," said Perry Public Library Fiscal Officer Christine Page. "This is one further step in our 'open door' policy regarding the finances of our public institution. Access to this information through a source such as the Treasurer of State's office makes the information, in our opinion, that much more credible, useful and useable to the general public and other entities. We appreciate the opportunity to be a partner in this project."

On April 7, 2015 Treasurer Mandel sent a letter to 18,062 local government and school officials representing 3,962 local governments throughout the state calling on them to place their checkbook level data on OhioCheckbook.com and extending an invitation to partner with his office at no cost to local governments. These local governments include cities, counties, townships, schools, library districts and other special districts.

A large coalition of statewide and local government organizations have expressed support for OhioCheckbook.com and local government transparency, including:

- Ohio Municipal League
- Ohio Township Association
- Ohio Association of School Business Officials
- Buckeye Association of School Administrators
- County Commissioner Association of Ohio
- County Auditor Association of Ohio
- Ohio Newspaper Association
- Ohio Society of CPAs
- Buckeye Institute
- Common Cause Ohio

OhioCheckbook.com was launched on December 2, 2014, marking the first time in Ohio history when citizens could actually see every expenditure in state government. Since its launch, OhioCheckbook.com has received overwhelming support from newspapers and groups across the state and, as of February 2, 2016 there have been more than 451,000 total searches on the site.

OhioCheckbook.com displays more than $506 billion in spending over the past eight years, including more than 137 million transactions. The website includes cutting-edge features such as:

- “Google-style” contextual search capabilities, to allow users to sort by keyword, department, category or vendor;
- Fully dynamic interactive charts to drill down on state spending;
- Functionality to compare state spending year-over-year or among agencies; and,
- Capability to share charts or checks with social media networks, and direct contact for agency fiscal offices.

In March 2015, the U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG) released their annual “Following the Money 2015” report and Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one transparency ranking in the country for providing online access to government spending data. Ohio was prominently featured in the report after climbing from 46th to 1st in spending transparency as a result of Treasurer Mandel’s release of OhioCheckbook.com. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio received a perfect score of 100 points this year – the highest score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

The Treasurer’s office is partnering with OpenGov, a leading Silicon Valley government technology company, to provide residents of Ohio the ability to view and search local government expenditures in a user-friendly, digital format. “Ohio is setting the
