Momentum Grows for Statewide Government Transparency with Over 750 Local Government and School Districts Partnering with OhioCheckbook.com

Press Release - Ohio Treasurer's Office

AMHERST – Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel announced today the launch of the City of Amherst, New Russia Township and Amherst Township online checkbooks on OhioCheckbook.com. In December 2014, Treasurer Mandel launched OhioCheckbook.com, which sets a new national standard for government transparency and for the first time in Ohio history puts all state spending information on the internet. OhioCheckbook.com recently earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for a second year in a row.

The Ohio Treasurer's office was joined at today's announcement by City of Amherst Auditor David Kukucka and Deputy Auditor Gwen Melbar. Amherst is the first city in Lorain County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com, and New Russia Township and Amherst Townships are the first townships in Lorain County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com.

The following is a breakdown of today's local government sites:

Amherst's online checkbook includes over 40,000 individual transactions that represent more than $130 million of total spending over the past five years.

New Russia Township's online checkbook includes over 3,000 individual transactions that represent more than $1.6 million of total spending over the past two Fiscal Years.

Amherst Township's online checkbook includes over 4,000 individual transactions that represent more than $2.7 million of total spending over the past four years.

"I believe the people of Lorain County have a right to know how their tax money is being spent, and I applaud local leaders here for partnering with my office to post the finances on OhioCheckbook.com," said Treasurer Mandel. "By posting local government spending online, we are empowering taxpayers across Ohio to hold public officials accountable."

"OhioCheckbook.com will enable the administration of Amherst to further communicate the importance of transparency to our residents," said Auditor David Kukucka. "The site is a user-friendly tool for the community to view the City's spending, while utilizing technology to make information easily accessible for anyone."

"New Russia is proud to be a leader in Lorain County by joining OhioCheckbook.com!" said Fiscal Officer Lisa Akers.

On April 7, 2015 Treasurer Mandel sent a letter to 18,062 local government and school officials representing 3,962 local governments throughout the state calling on them to place their checkbook level data on OhioCheckbook.com and extending an invitation to partner with his office at no cost to local governments. These local governments include cities, counties, townships, schools, library districts and other special districts.

OhioCheckbook.com was launched on December 2, 2014, marking the first time in Ohio history when citizens could actually see every expenditure in state government. Since its launch, OhioCheckbook.com has received overwhelming support from newspapers and groups across the state and, as of July 25, 2016 there have been more than 575,000 total searches on the site.

OhioCheckbook.com displays more than $529 billion in spending over the past eight years, including more than 146 million transactions. The website includes cutting-edge features such as:

- “Google-style” contextual search capabilities, to allow users to sort by keyword, department, category or vendor;
- Fully dynamic interactive charts to drill down on state spending;
- Functionality to compare state spending year-over-year or among agencies; and,
- Capability to share charts or checks with social media networks, and direct contact for agency fiscal offices.

In March 2015, the U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG) released their annual “Following the Money 2015” report and Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one transparency ranking in the country for providing online access to government spending data. Ohio was prominently featured in the report after climbing from 46th to 1st in spending transparency as a result of Treasurer Mandel’s release of OhioCheckbook.com. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio received a perfect score of 100 points this year – the highest score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

In April 2016, U.S. PIRG announced that Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for the second consecutive year in a row. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio again received the highest perfect score of 100 points this year – marking the second time in two years Ohio received the highest possible score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.
