STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

Momentum Grows for Statewide Government Transparency with Over 770 Local Government and School Districts Partnering with OhioCheckbook.com

Press Release - Ohio Treasurer's Office

MECHANICSTOWN – Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel announced today the launch of the Rose Township, Brown Township, Village of Sherrodsville and Village of Leesville online checkbooks on OhioCheckbook.com. In December 2014, Treasurer Mandel launched OhioCheckbook.com, which sets a new national standard for government transparency and for the first time in Ohio history puts all state spending information on the internet. OhioCheckbook.com recently earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for a second year in a row.

The Ohio Treasurer's office was joined at today's announcement by Rose Township Trustees Joe Little, Joe Owens, and Joe Ward, Rose Township Fiscal Officer Bruce Downes, Sherrodsville Fiscal Officer Roxanne Mazur and Brown Township Trustee Ryan Irwin.

Rose Township, Brown Township, Sherrodsville and Leesville are the first local governments in Carroll County post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com.

The following is a breakdown of today's local government sites:

Rose Township's online checkbook includes over 1,800 individual transactions that represent more than $1.2 million of total spending over the past three years.

Brown Township's online checkbook includes over 2,700 individual transactions that represent more than $1.7 million of total spending over the past three years.

Sherrodsville's online checkbook includes over 2,500 individual transactions that represent more than $896,000 of total spending over the past three years.

Leesville's online checkbook includes over 600 individual transactions that represent more than $311,000 of total spending over Fiscal Year 2015.

"I believe the people of Carroll County have a right to know how their tax money is being spent, and I applaud local leaders here for partnering with my office to post the finances on OhioCheckbook.com," said Treasurer Mandel. "By posting local government spending online, we are empowering taxpayers across Ohio to hold public officials accountable."

"Rose Township is proud to be a leader in transparency in Carroll County and join OhioCheckbook.com," said the Rose Township Trustees and Fiscal Officer in a joint statement. "Our citizens deserve to see this information and we are happy to provide it in an online format."

"Brown Township is excited to be a transparency leader in Carroll County by joining the OhioCheckbook.com," said Brown

Township Fiscal Officer Jeanne Grimm. "This program will give our residents greater transparency into how their tax dollars are being spent."

"In this information age, the Village of Sherrodsville is happy to participate in Treasurer Mandel's OhioCheckbook.com program," said Village of Sherrodsville Fiscal Officer Roxanne Mazur.

"The Village of Leesville wants to be open with our community about how we spend their taxpayer dollars," said Village of Leesville Fiscal Officer Sally Bernhart. "We're looking forward to giving the public access to information that is public record."

On April 7, 2015 Treasurer Mandel sent a letter to 18,062 local government and school officials representing 3,962 local governments throughout the state calling on them to place their checkbook level data on OhioCheckbook.com and extending an invitation to partner with his office at no cost to local governments. These local governments include cities, counties, townships, schools, library districts and other special districts.

A large coalition of statewide and local government organizations have expressed support for OhioCheckbook.com and local government transparency, including:

- Ohio Municipal League
- Ohio Township Association
- Ohio Association of School Business Officials
- Buckeye Association of School Administrators
- County Commissioner Association of Ohio
- County Auditor Association of Ohio
- Ohio Newspaper Association
- Ohio Society of CPAs
- Buckeye Institute
- Common Cause Ohio

OhioCheckbook.com was launched on December 2, 2014, marking the first time in Ohio history when citizens could actually see every expenditure in state government. Since its launch, OhioCheckbook.com has received overwhelming support from newspapers and groups across the state and, as of August 16, 2016 there have been more than 600,000 total searches on the site.

OhioCheckbook.com displays more than $534 billion in spending over the past eight years, including more than 147 million transactions. The website includes cutting-edge features such as:

- "Google-style" contextual search capabilities, to allow users to sort by keyword, department, category or vendor;
- Fully dynamic interactive charts to drill down on state spending;
- Functionality to compare state spending year-over-year or among agencies; and,

Capability to share charts or checks with social media networks, and direct contact for agency fiscal offices.

In March 2015, the U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG) released their annual "Following the Money 2015" report and Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one transparency ranking in the country for providing online access to government spending data. Ohio was prominently featured in the report after climbing from 46th to 1st in spending transparency as a result of Treasurer Mandel's release of OhioCheckbook.com. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio received a perfect score of 100 points this year – the highest score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

In April 2016, U.S. PIRG announced that Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for the second consecutive year in a row. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio again received the highest perfect score of 100 points this year – marking the second time in two years Ohio received the highest possible score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

The Treasurer's office is partnering with OpenGov, a leading Silicon Valley government technology company, to provide residents of Ohio the ability to view and search local government expenditures in a user-friendly, digital format. "Ohio is setting the standard for financial transparency on an unprecedented scale. We are excited to partner with the Treasurer's office to bring world-class technology to communities large and small across the state," said Zachary Bookman, CEO of OpenGov.
