

JOSH MANDEL

STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

Below are the lists of Energy Star rated products that are eligible for the ECO-Link program. These products are listed on the Energy Star website operated by the U.S. Department of Energy and meet the federal standards for energy efficiency. Eligible Products include: 1. Energy Star certified (1) appliances, (2) building products, (3) heating & cooling products, or (4) water heaters. Detailed explanations of each of these general categories can be found at <https://www.energystar.gov/products/certified-products>

Products within these categories include: Appliances Building Products Ductless Heating & Cooling Air Purifiers (Cleaners) Residential Windows, Doors and Skylights Furnaces Clothes Dryers Roof Products Heatpumps (both air-source and geothermal) Dehumidifiers Seal and Insulate Ventilation Fans Dishwashers Heating & Cooling Water Heaters Freezers Air Conditioning (either central or for a room) Includes high efficiency gas and electric, as well as solar models Refrigerators Boilers A comprehensive database of Energy Star certified products is available at <https://www.energystar.gov/productfinder/> 2. Programmable Thermostats 3. Solar Panels 4. Geothermal heating/cooling systems 5. Small scale wind turbines 6. Other permanent home improvements that are shown through documentation to provide at least a 5% improvement in energy efficiency.